Choosing Doctors Direct

Any delay in obtaining non-emergency medical treatment for a hotel guest can seriously impact the quality of their stay – be it for business or pleasure. Doctors Direct was created to meet the need for a non-emergency medical service that is just a telephone call away, whatever the time of day or night. It is a service that reflects extremely well on how you care for your guests.

By choosing Doctors Direct you will ensure that the doctors who treat your guests are registered with the UK General Medical Council and are members of the Royal College of General Practitioners or hold an equivalent qualification from another UK or EU body.

The Doctors Direct code of conduct and doctor revalidation procedures ensure that the highest standards of patient care are assured.

So, if you need medical assistance for a guest, choose Doctors Direct with confidence.
